

Love Anna'

dy ac-
at her e there in one y in the

5 knew
aculate
ears "I had a ndance
se and
Irene
rade at he has rs.

Bishop Joseph L. Hogan summed up the collective sentiment when he said simply, "We are all here because we love Anna."

"Rebuttal" time was granted the guest of honor who quickly recounted some of her personal history and remembrances of bishops past and present—Bishops Thomas Hickey, John Francis O'Hern, James E. Kearney ("a true man of God"), Lawrence B. Casey ("a happy memory"), Dennis W. Hickey, John E. McCafferty, and Bishop Hogan ("a long suffering and patient bishop").

Bishop Hogan implied in his talk that those who love their work never really retire and that he intended to keep up with Miss Brady in the years ahead. The feeling was unanimous.

Who's that with Miss Brady?

Frank Wolfe, longtime financial advisor to diocese.

With Margaret Connolly of the Courier-Journal.

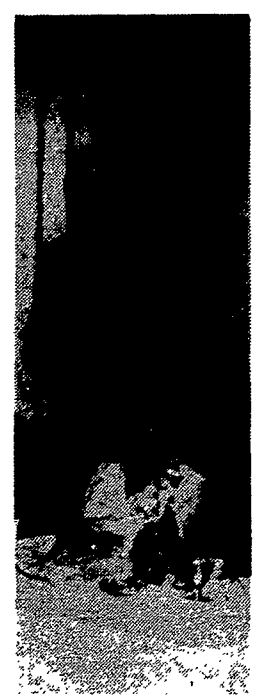

... Msgr. Richard K. Burns

monious evening ... as Fathers Paul J. Cuddy and Louis J. Hohman can attest.

... at the head table

Father Michael Conboy delivered opening prayer. Among speakers were Bishop Hickey, Father John Roach, and Msgr. Emmett Murphy whose deadpan humor delighted all.

Text by Carmen J. Viglucci
Photos by Anthony J. Costello and Susan McKinney