Coming at Nazareth

Ground was broken last Monday for a $700,000 addition to the Nazareth College Learning Resources Center. The drawing shown here represents the west elevation, planned to harmonize with the architecture of the new Otto A. Shults Community Center. The other wings of the old library building will be left as they are, in the traditional style of the buildings they face. The expansion will double library shelf space and add room for audio-visual services, study areas and other facilities. Special gifts and foundation grants will pay for the construction.

Deaths

Sr. Clare Kalb

Sister Clare Kalb, RSCJ, a Rochesterian who has been a member of the Religious of the Sacred Heart for 47 years, died July 11, 1977 at the convent in Kenwood, near Albany. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated there July 13 by Father Thomas Kilduff, OCD, with interment in the community's burial grounds.

Tabernacle work and many other things. Even in her 87th year she was still mending habits for the infirm and making dainty aprons and children's dresses for the Arts and Crafts Shop.

family of 11 children are Sister Marie Kalb, also a member of the Religious of the Sacred Heart, who is stationed in Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Mrs. Martin J. Weaver (Kathryn) and Frederick W. Kalb, both of Rochester, and several nieces and nephews.

Mother Benetta

Mother Benetta Green, RSCJ, portress at the Old Academy of the Sacred Heart for about 35 years, died July 26, 1977, at the Motherhouse in Kenwood, according to Mrs. Robert O'Kane, secretary of the academy's alumnae association.

"She would be known to a great many people here," Mrs. O'Kane said, "because it was her duty to take telephone messages and answer the door..." from sometime in the 1930s until the Prince Street school closed in June, 1969.
