

The Rochester contingent included, from left, Fathers David Mura, Robert MacNamara, Robert O'Neill, and William Flynn, who pose with Bishop McCafferty, Mrs. Conley, Bishop Kelly and Bishop Hogan. With them are Father Jerome Robinson, Bishop Hickey and Father Frank Lioi. Absent from this picture are Fathers Michael Conboy, Bernard Carges, and John Firpo.

Bishops McCafferty and Hickey among other bishops.

A Bishop Is C

More than 50 diocesans — bishops, clergy, religious and laity — gathered Monday last in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington D.C., for the ordination to the episcopacy of one they claim as their own.

As the chords of Alleluia! Sing to Jesus swelled through the immense nave of the nation's Basilica, Mrs. Walter Conley of Ithaca, N.Y. stood in the front pew. Past her wound the great procession of 80 bishops, five cardinals, and her son, now Bishop Thomas C. Kelly, OP, auxiliary of Washington.

Also among those in that procession were Bishop

A view of the Sanctuary.

Photos by
Anthony J. Costello

Bishop Hogan among other bishops.

Bishop Kelly stands at the foot of the altar.