Interest on Term Savings Accounts is compounded daily and credited the last business day of each month. Should you need money before maturity, interest can be withdrawn without penalty. You may withdraw against the principal before maturity with consent of the Bank and subject to FDIC regulations that require the reduction of the interest rate on the amount withdrawn to the passbook rate in effect at the time of withdrawal and forfeiture of three (3) months' interest at such rate.

5.47% annual yield on 5.25% a year latest dividend

Day to Day Accounts - Dividends paid for every day money is on deposit provided $1 remains to end of the quarter, compounded daily and credited on the last business day of quarter.

Days of Grace Accounts - Money deposited during first 10 calendar days of any month will earn dividends from 1st of the month if left on deposit to end of quarterly period. Dividends compounded daily. Withdrawals made on any of last three business days of each quarter earn full dividends to end of the dividend period.

On all accounts, interest/dividends must remain on deposit for a full year to earn the yields shown.
Up to $40,000 FDIC Insurance Coverage for each account opened in a different legal ownership capacity.
