CHRISTMAS IS COMING

BY AMY POPPOON

Christmas is coming
It's not far away.
With its snow and its bells and horses and sleighs.

Christmas is coming
You can feel in the air.
Days are bright and cold and crisp and fair.

Christmas is coming
You see in children's eyes,
They sparkle and shine like starlit skies.

A Very Merry Christmas from St. Agnes!

Merry Christmas Parents!

BY KAREN BRUNETT
Nazareth

When I started to write this article I was going to write about the material things we get for Christmas, but as I went on I thought of something more important — the meaning of the word love. Without love the world couldn't survive.

Perhaps Christmas is the essence of love because love is giving and the Father gave us his most precious Son on Christmas morning. His Son grew to mankind and gave us the right to heaven by dying on the cross.

Christmas Spirit

By LARRY KEENAN
Cardinal Mooney

Christmas, like a distant star, Brings us something from afar, Unknown at times but always there, A special feeling that we can share.

Something hidden inside is brought to the surface, And our love for each other begins to Show. All the gifts and gatherings take on a purpose As the Christmas spirit grows.

When the time has finally come, And the Christmas feeling has touched us in its own way, We still won't know where it came from, But we'll hope that it's here to stay.

Happy Holidays!

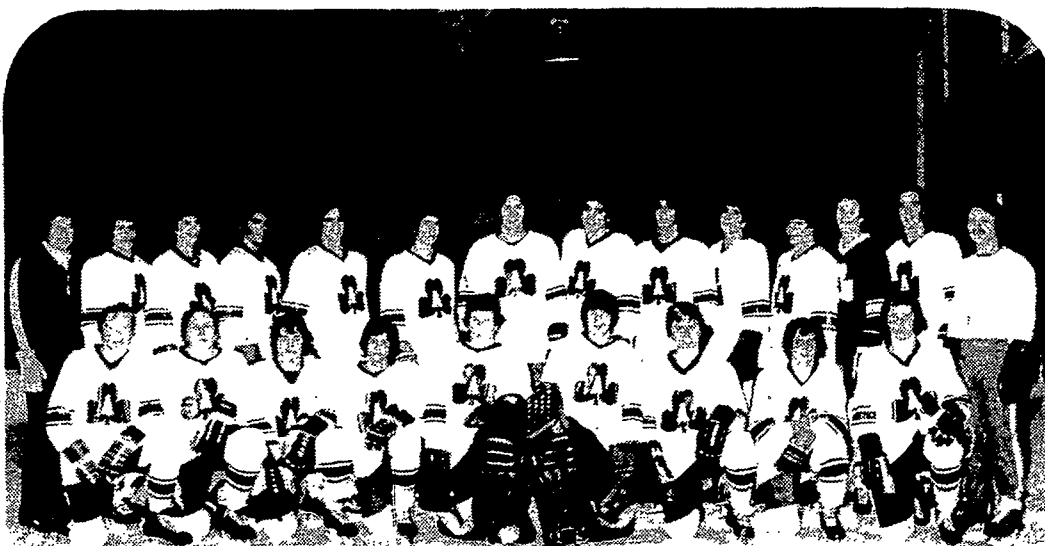

Notre Dame High School takes pleasure in sending its friends warm wishes for a joyous Christmas and extends its hopes to everyone for a happy new year.

Christmas is...

Giving and not expecting to receive; what love is all about; what you make it... Amy LaRossa, Mercy.

Christmas is...

A time for giving and sharing. A time to be with friends... Trish DiPonzio, BK.
