

BISHOP DENNIS W. HICKEY, BISHOP JOHN E. McCAFFERTY

An Anniversary

Two of the busiest men in the Rochester diocese obligingly took time last week for an anniversary portrait. Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey joined Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty for the purpose at Sacred Heart Cathedral rectory, and that was the extent of their "celebration" of a decade in the episcopacy.

Bishop McCafferty is known chiefly as cathedral rector and pastor of one of the largest parishes in the diocese. Bishop Hickey's principal position is that of Priests' Personnel Board director.

late Bishop Lawrence B. Casey of Paterson.

One of the unexpected consolations was, perhaps, the "sunlight" in Bishop McCafferty's study last Thursday afternoon. At any rate, the prelates can still laugh. And they can stand on their record.

As Bishop Casey would say, "Ad multos annos!"

Their view of the past 10 years was phrased by Bishop McCafferty and endorsed by his colleague: "We stand on our record!" They laughed.

When they were consecrated on March 14, 1968, they were told, "Some days the mitre will weigh heavy on your head, but there will also be unexpected consolations along the way." The speaker was their good friend and only predecessor as a Rochester auxiliary, the

New Venture Boutique

All day tomorrow, March 16, under the auspices of the Nazareth College Alumni Association, area handicrafters will be showing and selling their wares in the gymnasium of the Otto A. Shults Community Center, on campus. Committee members shown assembling their "New Venture Boutique" are, from the left, Mrs. James Ferster, Mrs. Daniel Saperstone and Mrs. Richard Vaccaro, chairman. There will be pottery, dolls, jewelry, etc., plus home-made foods, a flea market, a books-and-records nook, a salad bar and, at 3:15, a cartoon show to keep the children occupied. Hours are 10 a.m.-9 p.m.

CWC Slates Two Events

Two events of interest to the Catholic Women's Club have been slated for the near future. Adele Kent and Ruth Fleischman, musicians, will present a program of nostalgic songs from the musical "Song of Norway," at St. Ann's Home on Friday, March 17 at 2 p.m. Reservations for the program, sponsored by the CWC, may be made by calling the club offices, 275-9137.

The Business Women's Group of the club will hold its final meeting of the club year following a luncheon at Oak Hill Country Club on Saturday, April 8, at noon. Featured on the program is a book review by Miss Mary Foley and an exhibit of foreign jewelry. Again, reservations may be made by calling club offices.

FOR CHILDREN
A play for children four to nine years old will be presented twice this weekend at Aquinas Institute, 1127 Dewey Ave. Members of the Aquinas Performing Arts Club, assisted by actresses from other schools, will put on Sir Slob and the Princess at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, March 18 and 19. Tickets will be sold for 50 cents at the door only.

VETS ELECT
The Catholic War Veterans have re-elected their county commander, Ralph Edwards of Sacred Heart Cathedral.
