

Irish Dancers

Residents of St. Ann's Home and The Heritage were entertained Saturday by the Butler School Irish Dancers at the home's celebration of St. Patrick's Day. Dancers Mary Deil, Mary Ellen Gavin, Kathy O'Keefe, Monica Walker and Colleen O'Keefe (above) high-step to an upbeat Irish tune to the delight of Heritage residents Mrs. Elsie Isaac and Mrs. Mary McLaughlin.

Nursing Home Survey Begun

A survey of area nursing homes is underway in this area under the direction of the Rochester Chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women. The goal is to provide people with the facts they will need when they face the necessity of choosing a nursing home.

organization was chosen for this project by the Urban Institute and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The Catholic Womens' Club and B'Nai Brith Women are assisting in the study.

has more than 25 beds. They will talk with the administrator and walk about the place, collecting facts on fees, admissions policies, staffing, food service, programs, etc. Another group of volunteers will compile and edit survey findings.

IC Class of 1928 Looks for Members

Eighty-two boys and girls received diplomas at Immaculate Conception School on June 24, 1928. They were the school's second graduating class.

"Let us not forget one another," the eighth-grade president exhorted her classmates.

For half a century, many of these people have kept in touch with each other, so that now, when they are organizing a 50th anniversary celebration, only 11 of the 82 graduates are unaccounted for. The committee asks that Courier-Journal readers "help locate former members of Immaculate Conception parish who might know the whereabouts of the missing

Charges Dropped In Sit-in Case

Trespassing charges against seven young people who conducted a sit-in Jan. 6 at an abortion clinic in New York City were dropped last week in a New York court.

The seven are members of a national organization called People Expressing A Concern for Everyone, or

P.E.A.C.E. One of their number, Cheryl Battles of Rochester, told news reporters that during the sit-in, the group tried to "inform those women awaiting abortions of the physical, psychological and emotional hazards" involved. "They were so uninformed it was tragic," she said.
