Alleluia! Christ is Risen

Light of Life

Savior of the sun divine,
Gift to us of soul and mind,
We are lost without Your light,
Which rescues us from futile flight.
Help us wash the world with love,
In all we meet, be conscious of,
Your living presence in all You've made,
And came upon this earth to save.

Easter's Gift

Winter is bearable, Autumn is fair, Summer's a pleasant and nice time of year.
But there's something unique in the crisp, fresh spring air, That makes the worst pessimist lose every care. The bleak hibernation of winter's dark freeze, Fades from our minds with spring's brisk, gentle breeze. Those first rays of sunshine absorb all the pain, And loneliness washes away with the rain. The birds sing so sweetly; their songs still the skies. And with green all around, it's a feast for the eyes.
But this isn't all, spring's a gift for the soul. For Christ rises to join us and make us all whole.
