Mooney's on the Air

Recently, Cardinal Mooney High School was a radio broadcasting center. WGMC, the Greece Community radio station, installed broadcasting equipment at the school and the Mooney students took over from there. They provided live music, poetry readings, news reports, excerpts from the school's history and personal interviews. Above, in left hand corner photo, co-coordinators Brother James Martin and Mrs. Virginia Probst (librarian) go over program schedules while Mary Hoffman documents Mooney tradition. Technicians included, seated from left, Scot Pavone and Tom White along with Ed Potter, Eric Hemdal and John Collins. Father Aubert Harrigan, principal, opened the proceedings with a welcome to WGMC listeners.
