

Joseph Dorscheid shares a lunch with his wife Pearl. The Dorscheid's reside at Hurlbut Nursing Home.

Paul Mallett, an eighth grader at St. Louis, escorts Marian Bailey, of Monroe Community Hospital, to her place inside.

Sunshine

Photos By Susan McKinney

Nearly 150 guests came to St. Louis, Pittsford, on a sunny Wednesday afternoon recently for a social hour (complete with strolling troubadours), a home cooked luncheon and choral performances by St. Louis students and the Rochester chapter of The Sweet Adelines.

The "Sunshine Luncheon" sponsored by the St. Louis Rosary Guild, was declared a success by the company — residents of nine neighboring nursing homes and Monroe Community Hospital and shut-ins from the Pittsford area.

Clare Aughey, of Fairport, getting some help from several volunteers.

Mrs. Betty Smith (left), a Rosary Guild volunteer offers some refreshments to one of the guests.

Wander
entertai