

Guests begin arriving at St. Louis (left), and are welcomed by guild members above.

Residents of Monroe Community Hospital leaving their bus.

Wheel chairs and walkers were no problem for participants.

Luncheon

Miss Mary Arney, Rosary Guild general chairman, said that 125 parish volunteers were involved in the project. The lunch was prepared by 75 Guild members who also served as hostesses.

St. Louis grade schoolers also pitched in helping guests from their cars, buses and vans to their seats.

It was a totally successful team effort: even Mother Nature cooperated.

Wandering Troubadours Thomas Hickey and Genevieve Salazzo entertaining at one of the tables.

Volunteer assists with an overcoat.