

For Your Dining Pleasure

Specials Are Order of Day at Mr. Dominic's

By PETER FRAVER

The menu at Mr. Dominic's is loaded with specials. Mondays and Wednesdays the feature is a dozen steamed clams for $1.25. Tuesdays one can eat spaghetti all night for $1.75. The Saturday features are 16 and 24 oz. prime rib dinners. Accompanying these special entrees are homemade pastas, gnocci, and canneloni. This is all complemented by an extensive list of fine wines.

Partners Dominic Payne and Ernest Howell opened Mr. Dominic's, formerly Cinelli's, in 1975. It's a place of special people and special foods. Chef Wayne Watt, full-blooded Seneca Indian, prepares six different Italian veal dishes, all of which are a source of pride to the owners.

Dominic and Ernest are on hand every night to ensure that this pride of ownership is reflected in both a consistently courteous staff and friendly atmosphere. They make a special effort to welcome family dining by providing junior portions and children's prices for many menu items.

Mr. Dominic's is open seven days and dinners are served from four to 10:30 p.m. It lives up well to its reputation for fine Italian dishes, many of which will be featured at the Fiera Italiana, slated for downtown in July. But don't wait until then to treat yourself.
