

Montezuma, Port Byron Report Parish Events

Montezuma — The parish council of St. Michael's, Montezuma, and St. John's, Port Byron, received new members June 7 at an evening Mass. The council now includes Mr. and Mrs. Don Kudla, Mr. and Mrs. William Nagle, Frank Dalesio, Ted Kolczynski, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cobb and Margaret Young.

An Appreciation Party was given June 12 for all volunteers in the twin parishes. The next social event will be a barbecue Aug. 5, with Margaret Young and Josephine Van Acora in charge.

After Masses throughout the month of May, the rosary was recited for the three specific intentions of the parishes — the return of wayward Catholics to Mass and the sacraments; new members, and more vocations to the religious life. On Mothers Day, 18 children received First Communion. They were prepared by their parents, with the help of the pastor, Father Bernard Kuchman.

Open House

St. Ann's Home has its own resident musicians to enliven social gatherings. Above, Fred Piotter and Domenic Pietropaolo entertain at one of the many events arranged in the name of Nursing Home Week, May 14-19. The photo below shows (l-r) Mrs. Lucy Dawson, Mrs. Eva Gallagher and Mrs. Angelina Palermo in the foreground of a group assembled for cocktails on the evening of the Residents' Recognition Dinner. The week's program included a putting contest, a ballet performance and a band concert. Official proclamations of the "week" were transcribed on parchment by Mrs. Delia Atwell, a 94-year-old resident of St. Ann's.
