

For Your Dining Pleasure

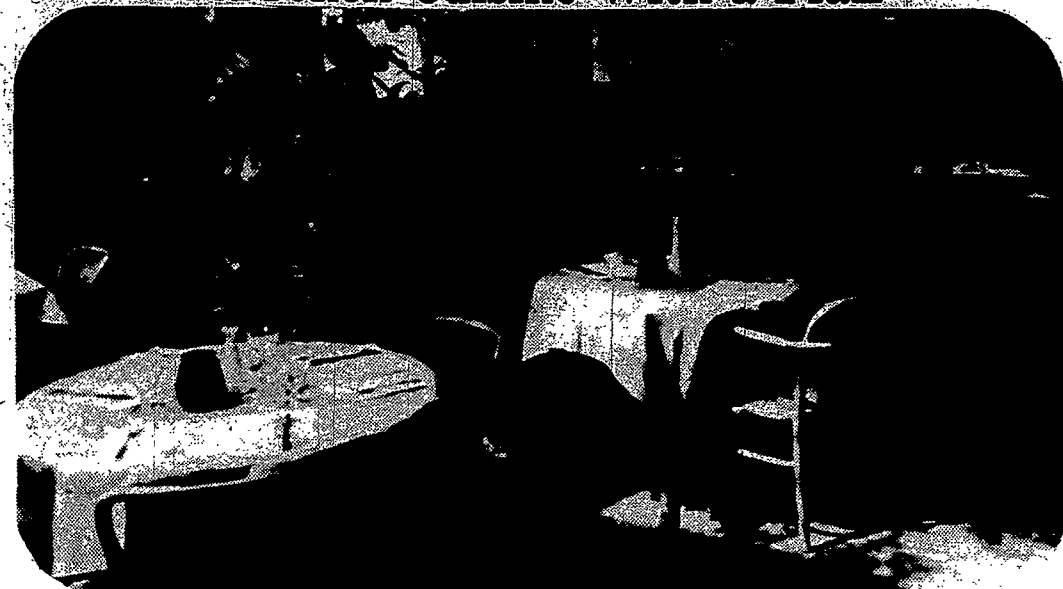

The Rendezvous: French Cuisine With a Flair

By Peter Fraver

When dusk thickens into a blue setting for the moon, and the last shoppers are drifting homeward, the Rendezvous distills the rich scents of French seafood dishes and flaming deserts to float out through the open door.

Couples drift to rose adorned tables, amid thick leafed plants and shimmering mirrors, where they are offered the creations of Chef Robert Blaine, which include Beef Wellington, Veal Rendezvous, Pepper Steak, Chateaubriand, and Steak Diane.

Owner Bob Monteneri's Rendezvous offers the finest in French Continental dining, represented by such dishes as Sirloin aux Champignons, Veal French Monaco, Coq au Vin, and Sole Francais. These dinners are complimented by desserts of Cherries Jubilee and Bananas Foster, which are prepared by the waiters at the table. As is evident by the menu entrees, the entire staff is dedicated to the art of fine dining.

The Rendezvous serves dinners from 5 to 11 Monday through Thursday and 6 to 12 on Fridays and Saturdays. Lunch is served between 11:30 and 3 Monday through Friday and the Cocktail Hour, featuring .85 cocktails is from 3 to 7 daily. The prize of this hour is a frozen daiquiri made with a different ice cream each day.

The house also caters parties to 140 on Sundays and holds weekly Backgammon tournaments on Monday nights. Prices for dinners, exclusive of wine, range from $6.25 to $11.00. Reservations are encouraged but not required and special dinners are available for party menus.

For those appreciative of fine French-Continental cuisine, the Rendezvous evening offerings will delight the most delicate palate.

The restaurant is located at 1100 Jefferson Rd.
