

St. Leo's Adult and Children's Choir.

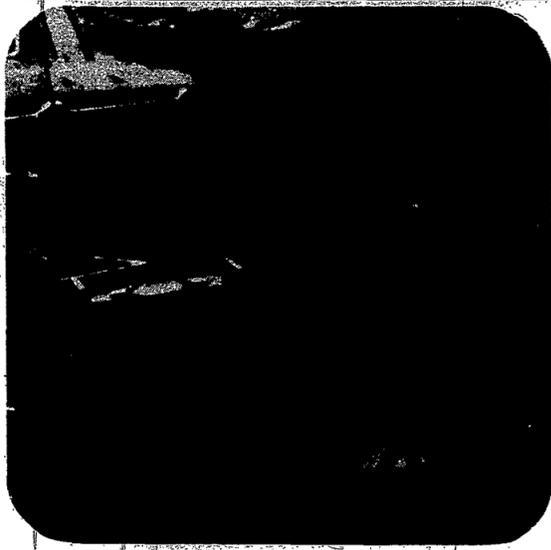

A New Twist

Hilton — St. Leo's Parish Festival featured something special this year, and from the reception it received, that feature could well become an annual event.

According to Mike Tarkulich of the parish, the festivities included an interdenominational music festival, which drew the choirs and folk groups from six area churches, a soloist, and four gospel groups.

The event, Tarkulich said, was organized by Marie Herbert, organist and choir director at St. Leo's.

Singers included the Hilton Methodist Adult Choir, Dennis Newman, Joy Singers, St. Leo's Adult and Children's Choir, Fellowship Four and Al Howe, St. Lawrence's Folk Group, Ricky Brooks' Gospel Group, Love Covenant, St. Charles Folk Group, the Hilton Baptist Church, St. Leo's Folk Group and Redeeming Love Quartet.

Precious Blood Honors St. Anne

The Church of the Most Precious Blood will observe the feast of St. Anne on Sunday July 23.

The celebration was begun at the church some 26 years ago by a group of immigrants from Pignatara, Italy. The celebrations include a procession/parade to the church where Mass is celebrated at 12:15 p.m. The homily is preached in Italian. For nine days prior to the feast, a novena to St. Anne is recited in the church at 7 p.m.

Essay Winner

Raleigh, N.C. — Former Rochesterian Deborah Anne Waldorf, daughter of William and Joan Waldorf, was recently named the winner of the state essay contest sponsored by the Knights of Columbus here. Deborah Anne is in the eighth grade at Our Lady of Lourdes School. Her father is a past grand knight of the Henrietta K of C council, and is now State Treasurer of the North Carolina knights.

IRS Warning

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a warning to taxpayers which advises them to ask to see credentials of all persons identifying themselves as IRS employees. Individuals have, in the past, posed as IRS employees to collect money for what "these impostors refer to as unpaid taxes," the release said.
