

St. Agnes High School offered two unique programs for the community this summer. A dance camp, July 10-15 and a ceramics workshop, July 3-28. Top left photo shows St. Agnes art teacher, Patricia Sheridan helping Caramia Cognata with a ceramics project. Over in the dance studio Tina Cognata leads Maggie Kellogg, Julie Mahan, Jenny White (obstructed), Beverly Higgins (front) and June White (far right) in limbering up exercises. Below, Sister Mary Kay Ryan works with Julie Mahan while Anne Britt works on a flower pot.

or westerly as Labbruzzo would prefer.

a 12-4 won-loss record on Sunday, July 23, the aetermine which club goes into the playoffs.

Shepherd, 8-3; Harvey C. Noone, 5-4; Crozier-Engelinter, and Cottrea Warner, 7-0.

JA Forms New Group

CO

ball

The for t take Cou girls reca chan held four beati a sc won with of play defe Chri out innit The back next behi tied singl a clu after with

In Rita single Julie Cam dend took St. M two r

St

back botte catcl

Burk

Rita'

unas

regul boys seas

Aq

Ap

Dr. V

the A

Trus

succe

who

for

Stepl

board

and

year

num

shou

Fath

scho

rang

ident

Asid

he is

coac

the and e

H

daug famil

Şte

It

Dudley Bray, executive director of Junior Achievement of Rochester, has announced a newly formed Achievers Speakers Bureau. The project is to make the people of Monroe and Wayne Counties more aware of the objective and goals of JA.

a school doys and girls' varsity sports programs along with new names among the coaching ranks will be included in the Courier-Journal's Aug. 16 Back to School Section. Athletic directors should contact John Doser at (716) 223-6636 to assure their schools are covered.

comprehensive look

at

* *

The Rosary Hour, a 7 p.m. permanent fixture on WSAY for 25 years, hurts the Rochester Red Wings says Don Labbruzzo, general manager.

Labbruzzo explains that the Red Wings make money based on the number of commericals that are broadcast.

The Rosary Hour hurts because the Red Wings go on the air at 6:30, for doubleheaders, for example, but go off the air while the Rosary Hour takes over for 30 minutes at 7 p.m.

To further complicate things, WSAY's evening signal goes directional after sundown - not as easterly

WSAY's John Sebaste. program director, tried to work a compromise with the Rosary Hour and the Red Wings, but his prayers weren't answered; the Rosary Hour refused to budge from its niche of a quarter-century.

Joseph Father Cirrincione of St. Francis of Assisi Church, who conducts the Rosary Hour, did the next best thing however + he offered to pray for the Red Wings.

The Red Wings need all the prayers they can get; new manager Frank Robinson isn't about to turn down any favors from anybody.

Greece Post, composed mostly of ballplayers from Cardinal Mooney, and City Employees, made up of Aquinas, Jefferson and East High players, didn't gain the distinction of being the Monroe County American Legion Baseball League's representative in the district playoffs.

Harsch-Crisp-Seaman of Brockport did; HCS owned

Greece Post had a 12-6 mark and City Employees were 10-9; ironically HCS had three games scheduled for the weekend of July 21-23 and all three were rained out.

If HCS stays hot, they can advance to the state finals at Cooperstown, Aug. 19, and then on to the national finals.

Marty Mahoney, McQuaid, qualified for the Empire Games in Syracuse, Aug. 17-20, at the recent Region 6 qualifier in Buffalo.

Mahoney, named the outstanding swimmer of the City-Catholic Swimming League last year, qualified for the 50 meter freestyle and the 100. meter backstroke events.

Greece Post won five games in a row to hike its county legion baseball. mark to 12-6.

GP bombed Doty-Magill, 15-0; Brooks-

GP's win over Doty-Magill avenged a 4-1 loss just a week earlier to the crosstown Greece -rivals. Chris Knuth, Ted Terrell and Terry Marks homered for GP.

Greg Tuttle, Aquinas, earned a save in the win over Brooks-Shepherd (Fairport), and won in relief in GP's win over Harvey C. Noone (Churchville).

Greece rapped 15 hits in defeating Crozier-Engel-Winter (Brighton) with Mike Visconte getting three hits including a homer.

GP blanked Cottreal-Warner behind Tuttle's four hitter and Greg Egan homered for the winners.

Terry Diehl, Aquinas graduate, won $4,875 for finishing sixth in the Quad Cities Open at Coal Valley, III. He shot a 68-69-70-67-274. He boosted his year's carning to over $20,000.

The Bureau will included achievers and former achievers who as members of the Bureau will promote JA to organizations such as Rotary Clubs, Kiwanis Clubs, Ad Clubs, and women's organizations. ANy club interested in having a JA representative speak at a function, call the Junior Achievement office, 232-6950.

Wrestling Honors

Robert Button, A Newark High sophomore and member of St. Michaels Parish will represent the U. S. in International Competition at Albuquerque, New Mexico, Aug. 3. Bob who is a heavy weight on his school's wrestling team won the Section Five AA Championship, Also, on July 23 in Lincoln, Nebraska, he took the Grand National Advanced PZU.UUU Wrestling Title in his weight class, 192 pounds