

For Your Dining Pleasure

Homemade Specials Are Order Of Day At Gondolier

By PETER FRAVER

The casual, though perfectly definite aim of the people at the Gondolier is to offer the best home made Italian dishes in the area. Their success in the realization of this aim is hard to refute.

Served in the quiet, fireplace-flanked dining room are Veal Saltimbocca Alla Romana, Lasagna Al Forno, Fettucini, Gnocci, Calimari, and Brascciole A La Marinara. These are topped off by Cheesecake and assorted pies, including ricotta pie with chocolate chips.

Salvatore and Nancy Galvano claim the freshest, and only homemade pasta in Metropolitan Rochester.

Each of these entrees is listed on the menu with a selected wine, to make complementing your dinner with the right bottle easier.

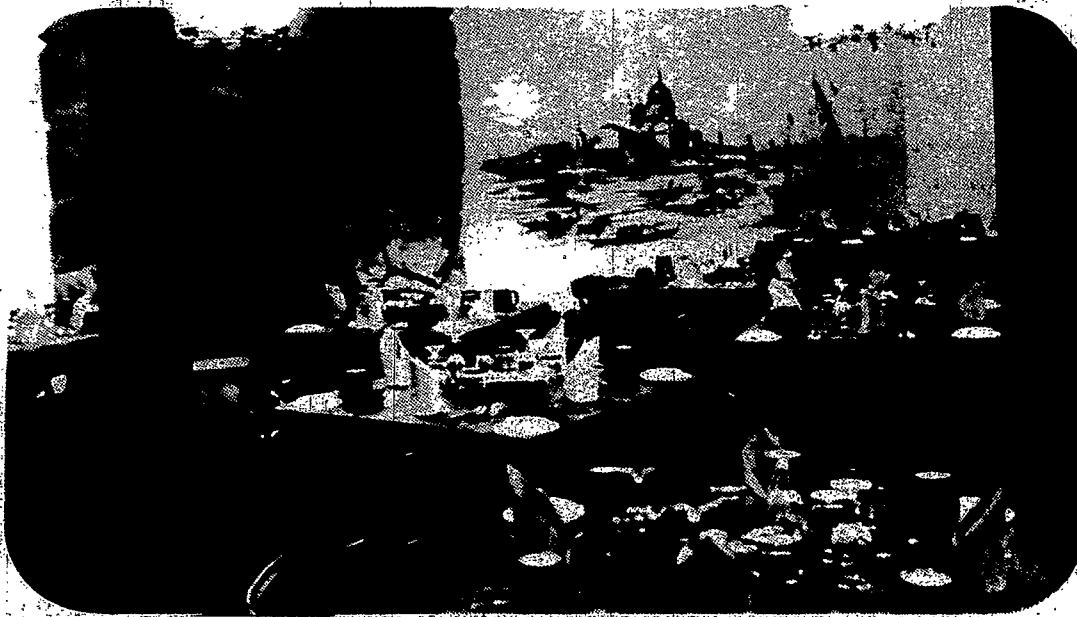

The Galvano family has been in the restaurant business for many years. It shows.

The courteous staff, including Bartender Oakly Glover, make the cocktail and dinner hours at the Gondolier a pleasure. Adding to this pleasure are locally known mandolin player Mary Risewick and an Italian band on selected nights.

The Gondolier is minutes from Rochester on 250 Pixley Road. Reservations are encouraged but not required and families are always welcome. A children's menu is provided. Lunch is served from 11 to 2:30 Monday through Friday and dinner hours are from 5 to 11 Monday through Saturday and from 1 to 9 on Sunday. Dinners, exclusive of wine, range from $3.95 to $16.95.

The Gondolier has been open three weeks and in that short time their reputation for fine, fresh, homemade pastas has spread throughout the city. Couple this with a shiny new dining room and a terrific staff and the Gondolier becomes a terrific place to visit.
