DON QUIXOTE'S

Fine Spanish Cuisine

If Don Quixote were worn from righting unrightable wrongs, and Sancho's stomach growled from attending his master's needs and riding burrowback too many miles, they would be in the mood for the finest Spanish cuisine in town. You would find them at 5 South Avenue.

Cesar D'Agostino opened the Don Quixote restaurant, named for Cervante's fictional character, on March 22, 1977. He came to Rochester in 1963 bringing with him 9 years of restaurant experience in Santiago, Chile.

Don Quixote's specializes in Spanish-Continental dishes which include Shrimp with Garlic Sauce, Paella, and Seafood Casserole. These dishes are complimented by an extensive wine list, the features of which are Spanish Marquis De Murieta and Marquis De Olivare. Chef Pascual Frutuoso, from Madrid Spain, makes the subtly seasoned entrees a pleasant adventure for those unaccustomed to Spanish cuisine and a consistent delight to return customers.

The house also offers several Businessman's luncheon specials and a complete children's menu.

Valet parking, party facilities for 70, and nightly Flamingo dancers also make Don Quixote's a must for those seeking a stylish and exciting Spanish night.
