

The Final Rites

The body is brought from the basilica to the square.

The casket is placed on a carpet. The paschal candle to the right of the head.

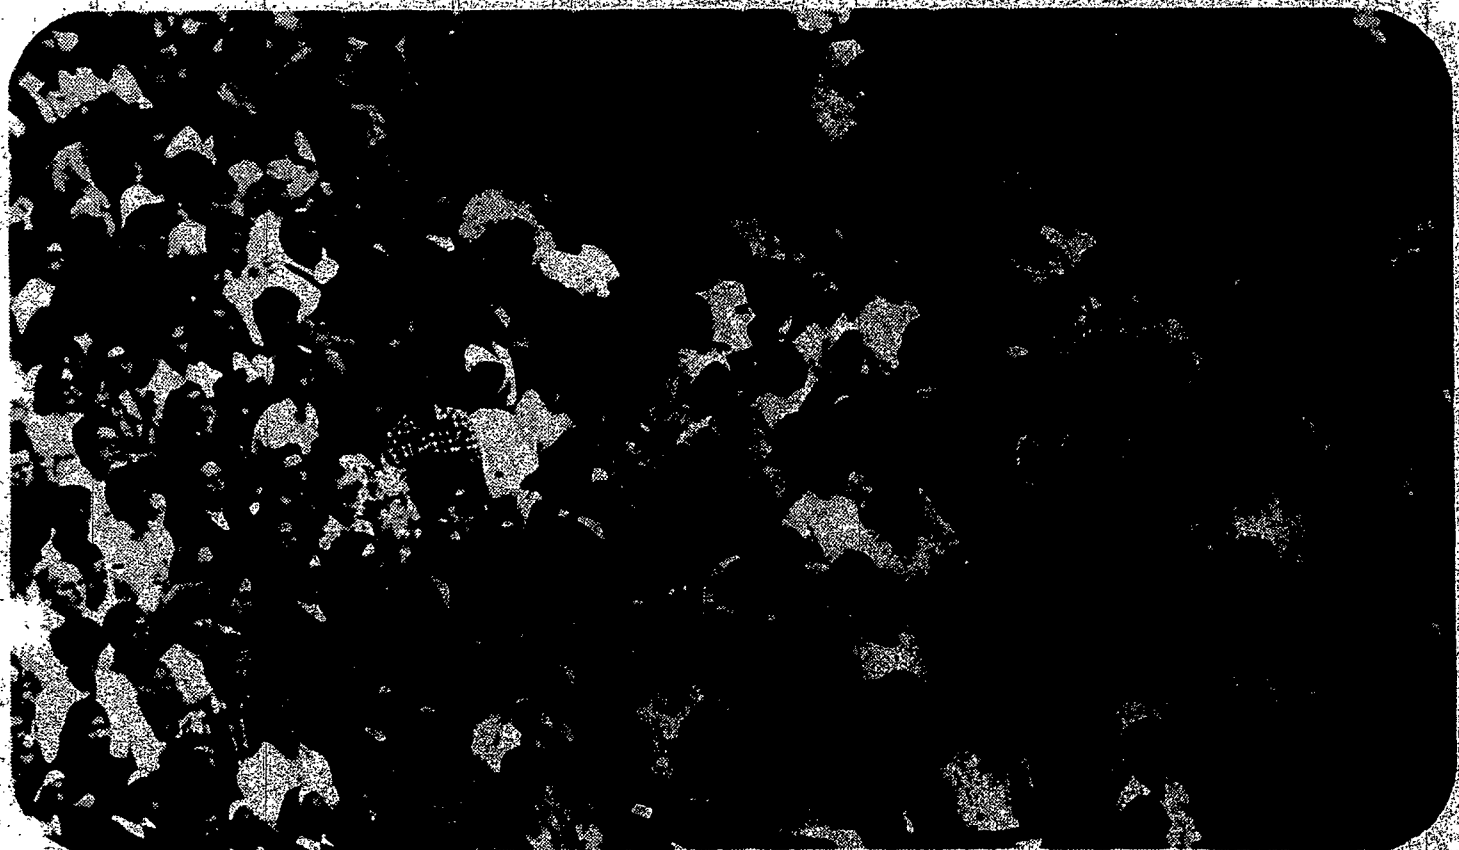

Photos by
Anthony J. Costello

The casket.

Mrs. Rosalyn Carter enters the square to take her place among the dignitaries. With her are Gov. Hugh Carey and Sen. Edward Kennedy.

The attention of the crowd is on the proceedings.