

Faces of the Great and the Humble

Photos by Anthony J. Costello

The faces of the pilgrims to the funeral of Pope Paul VI reflect the universality of the Church. The great and the humble came to pay homage to a great man who considered himself the "servant of the servants of God."