

Father Sasso Named Pastor in Nunda

Father Joseph M. Sasso is the new pastor of Holy Angels, Nunda, and Holy Name, Groveland. His appointment to the two parishes in southern Livingston County took effect yesterday, the Pastoral Office announced.

Father Sasso succeeds Father James Wolfe, who is moving to St. John the Evangelist, Greece, as associate pastor. Father Paul J. Ryan moves from the Greece parish to St. Andrew's, Rochester, as Father Winfried Kellner leaves St. Andrew's for St. Boniface. They are associate pastors.

The Pastoral Office announced also that Father Henry Atwell, pastor of St. Agnes, Avon, would serve as interim director of the Department of Ecumenism.

FATHER SASSO and that Father David Fedor, associate pastor of Holy Name of Jesus Church in Greece, had been granted leave to pursue graduate studies in music at the University of Notre Dame.

During the summer, Father Sasso has been associate pastor of St. Boniface, Rochester. He was associate pastor of St. John the Evangelist when he was assigned in June, 1976, as temporary administrator of St. Dominic's, Shortsville. Earlier, he had served at St. Anthony's Church, Rochester; St. Mary's, Canandaigua; Good Shepherd, Henrietta; St. Mary's, Ontario, and Holy Rosary, Rochester.

Father Sasso, a Rochesterian, attended School 21, Madison High School and Aquinas Institute before entering St. Andrew's Seminary. Graduated from St. Bernard's, he was ordained May 31, 1958.

Pope Okays Puebla Talks

Vatican City (RNS) - Pope John Paul I has officially approved plans for the third meeting of the Latin American Bishops Conference in Puebla, Mexico.

The new pontiff formally confirmed the dates, Oct. 12 to 28, and the presiding officers: Cardinal Sebastiano Baggio, president of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America; Cardinal Aloisio Lorscheider, archbishop of Fortaleza, Brazil, and president of the Latin American Bishops Conference, and Archbishop Ernest Corripio Ahumada of Mexico City.

Family Rosary Givers Lauded

September 6, 1978

My dear Friends of the Family Rosary for Peace:

Our world puts great emphasis on activity. But unless our actions are built on a foundation of prayer, we are simply wasting our energies. It is a great joy to me as your bishop to know that so many of you take the time each evening to seek the help of the Queen of Peace in bringing her son's Gospel to our world.

I am grateful for the constant devotion of Monsignor Cirrincione and for all of you whose voluntary contributions have made the program possible for more than three decades. In recent years the cost of conducting the broadcast has increased considerably. Now more than ever we look to your generosity to continue the countless blessings brought to all of us by the Family Rosary for Peace.

With my blessing, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Joseph L. Nguyen
