Step 1:

Commitment

The commitment — agreement comes first. Without the initial agreement by the parishioner to give their Time, Talent and Treasure, the concept of improving parish life, both for you and your family and your fellow parishioner, becomes impossible.

I offer my TREASURE

I acknowledge God's ownership and my stewardship of His generous gifts. As an expression of my love and thanks to God and as a co-worker with Christ, I intend to return to Him through my parish a proportionate amount of my income and estimate my contribution to the Sunday Offertory during the next 12 months will be:
$ 7 weekly or $ _____ monthly or $ _____ quarterly or $ _____ yearly.

Step 4:

Sharing Your Treasure

Practically speaking these ministries can't be carried out properly and for any extended length of time without financial support. This section of the survey is designed to give the pastor an idea of how much capital he will have to complete his important mission. It is not a legally binding document, nor meant to be. It is rather a concrete acknowledgement from you and your family that you cherish your faith and plan to thank Christ for His love by supporting His Church.
