Fr. Messner, SJ Once of McQuaid

Father William R. Messner, SJ, a native of Rochester and onetime administrator of McQuaid Jesuit High School, died Sept. 16, 1978, in Lenox Hill Hospital, New York City, after a long illness. He was buried in the Jesuit Cemetery at Auriesville.

Friends are invited to a memorial Mass at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 17 at the school.

Father Messner, son of the late Henry and Anna Messner, was the brother of Sister Mary Patrice, SSJ. Other survivors are his step-mother, Mrs. Ella Messner, also of Rochester, and a half-sister, Mrs. Harry Dean of Birmingham, Ala.

He attended St. Andrew's Seminary and was graduated from Aquinas Institute. His education was continued at St. Mary's and Woodstock colleges, both in Maryland. Between times, in 1937, he entered the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, and was ordained June 18, 1950. He was an Army chaplain from 1952 until 1963, when he became administrator of McQuaid.

Father Messner was at the Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Auriesville, 1964-66, first as director then as rector of the Jesuit community. Following an accident that resulted in prolonged hospitalization, he went to Puerto Rico to recuperate and shortly became rector of the Jesuits and president of Colegio San Ignacio there. He was a spiritual counselor and retreat director at the Gonzaga Center for Renewal at Monroe from 1972 until it closed in 1977.

Sr. Josephine Johnson, SSJ

Sister Josephine Johnson, SSJ, a native of Auburn who had taught there from 1965 until last June, died Sept. 14, 1978, in Auburn Memorial Hospital.

The Mass of Christian Burial was offered Sept. 15 at the Motherhouse Chapel, with burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Father Clarence Gardner, pastor of St. Alphonsus, concelebrated with five other Auburn priests, Fathers Raymond Wahl, Edward Shamon, Louis Sirian, Thomas Nellis and Robert Gaudio. Also concelebrating were Father Raymond Wuest of Elmira and Msgr. John M. Duffy. Msgr. William Naughton was present.

Sister Josephine entered the St. Joseph Congregation from St. Aloysius Parish in 1933. Her 40 years of teaching ended at St. Aloysius and the consolidated Blessed Trinity School. She had taught at Sacred Heart Cathedral School for 14 years, and at St. Patrick's, Seneca Falls; St. Anthony's, Elmira; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester, and St. Paul's, Oswego.

Survivors include her father, Joseph Johnson, and three sisters, Mrs. Melba Roy, Mrs. Hannah Bratek and Mrs. Emma Zobkiw, all of Auburn, and several nieces and nephews.

Eleanore Brophy

Eleanore D. Brophy, wife of Dr. John Brophy of Seneca Parkway, died Sept. 16, 1978.

The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Sept. 19 at Sacred Heart Cathedral by Father Anthony Dagele, SJ, a brother of Mrs. Brophy. He was assisted by Father William Endres, associate pastor. Bishop John E. McCafferty presided.

Mrs. Brophy was a past president of the Sacred Heart Rosary Guild. She distributed the Holy Eucharist at area nursing homes. She formerly was corresponding secretary of the University of Rochester Garden Club and was a member of the University of Rochester Women's Club.

She is survived by six sons and three daughters, Richard, Robert, Gerald, Thomas, John and Paul, Kathleen La Bue, Margery Galihier, and Mary Ann Eisenman; 17 grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers, three sisters-in-law and two brothers-in-law.

St. Monica's Bazaar

Members of St. Monica's School fund-raising committee complete plans for the school's annual "Black Cat Bazaar," slated this year for 5 to 10 p.m. on Oct. 13, and noon to 10 p.m. on Oct. 14. Seated, left to right, are Vicki Penberg, Adele Schneider, Maureen Havens, and Eleanor Rainge. Standing are Kevin Welling, Sister Janet Mary, Augustus Allen and Philip Micheau. All proceeds from the bazaar will go into the school's operating fund.

Now Blue Boy offers up to 10¢ a label.

Last year, thousands of non-profit organizations earned extra cash. Just by saving our labels.

In 1977, churches, schools, scouts and community service groups participated in Blue Boy's first Good Neighbor campaign.

They collected thousands of our labels and returned them to Blue Boy. And for every label saved, we gave them 5¢.

Now you can get more. Most Blue Boy labels are still worth 5¢. But, as a SPECIAL BONUS, you can earn 8¢ for all "Tiny Tin" 8 oz. size labels (the size preferred by singles and couples), and 10¢ for all regular-size Blue Boy green bean, wax bean, beet (in glass and cans), red cabbage and applesauce labels.

With so many delicious Blue Boy products to choose from, it's an easy way for your group to earn extra cash.

It's our way of lending your good group a helping hand.

Another good reason to buy Blue Boy, is garden fresh flavor. Blue Boy vegetables are grown in Upstate New York, and packed in cans with a special white plate lining.

Join in our Good Neighbor campaign. All non-profit organizations are eligible.

Just follow the coupon, fill it in, and mail it back to Blue Boy, along with our labels.
