What do you think of the new TV shows?

NOTRE DAME

DEBBIE HUFFMAN
Senior
Credo staff

"I think it's good they are getting away from violence. There are more entertaining shows that are just enjoyable. Some of the shows have too much sex but it's not too bad. My favorite show is "Three's Company". I like its comedy."

TERRY RAMSEY
Freshman

"They're alright. I like the "Jeffersons" and "Good Times" and "Soap". I'd like to see more sports on television, especially basketball. They have too much football but they do a good job with sports on TV."

PETER NORTON
Freshman

"They're not too bad. I like "Starsky and Hutch" and "Eight is Enough". I like comedies because they're funny; I get sick of violent shows but I think the violence was better than the sex they have now. I watch basketball, football and baseball and I think they do a good job with sports."

DICK RICH
Freshman

"I don't like them. They're boring and not funny. Dramas bore me, but anything else I'll watch. I'd like to see more good comedies on television. I watch a lot of sports, mainly baseball and football and I'll watch a basketball game every once in awhile."

PAT HUGES
Sophomore wrestling

"I don't think they're worth watching; they're too violent. I think the stuff on TV isn't worth watching. I think it's just a bunch of garbage. I like to watch comedy shows like "All in the Family". I very rarely watch violent shows. I do watch football, baseball and golf."

JOE RANSEY
Sophomore
basketball

"They are all right. I like them — they're a little ridiculous at times, but they're alright. "Taxi" seems foolish. I like "Charlie's Angels", the things that happen in it. That's my favorite show. They do a good job with sports on TV but there's not enough football on."

MIKE COPPOLA
football

"I don't like them because they're geared to a low intellectual level. These new ones that come out with canned laughter are ridiculous. The only thing I watch is sports, mainly baseball and football. I think they should televise more Yankee games in the state and I think they should show more of the old movies"

BARB COOK
Senior
Future Secretary Club

"I like the new TV shows. I think they're interesting because they are more about kids our age. There are more family shows on and I think that's good. There's too many commercials; they take up too much of the time. I'd like to see more good movies on television."

Business Update

Something new has been added to Nazareth Academy's Business Department, thanks to the efforts of three concerned business teachers. Prompted by an observation of various businessmen that some students find it difficult to carry over the skills they learn in school to the actual work situation, Mrs. Mariangela Annucci, Mrs. Sandra Dony and Miss Patricia Perzik applied for a grant. The State Education Department has awarded Nazareth a grant to purchase an Office Simulation.

BK Magazine Drive

Bishop Kearney High School will kick-off its magazine drive, Friday, Oct. 13. Between then and Oct. 30, the students will be selling over 300 popular and specialized magazines plus a special list of Catholic publications. They also will offer a selection of records and tapes from Columbia Broadcasting. BK students are aiming for a new high sales goal of $45,000 during the two-week drive. Proceeds will be used to enhance the academic program, aid the student retreat fund, and install bleachers on the school athletic field. In addition to the school benefiting, students will be rewarded for their efforts. Prizes will include BK frisbees, BK souvenir ceramic mugs and BK pitchers.

JA Begins New Year

Recently, Dudley Bray, executive director, announced that the Rochester Junior Achievement program began operating with 30 companies being formed. Over 800 high school students and almost 300 adult advisers have come together for the 11th year of JA.

The advisers are volunteers from Rochester and Monroe County businesses and industry. They will meet one night a week in one of the JA Business Centers from 7-9 p.m., guiding students in forming their own companies. After the fifth meeting, the advisers will step aside and act as consultants to the newly elected officers of the companies.

The students come from the 38 area high schools and learn how to make a product and sell it. They have training in keeping a set of books, and all the officers are trained in the duties of their specific office.

The JA program runs for the duration of the school year with all companies starting to liquidate in April. The year ends in May, with the Future Unlimited Banquet and Awards Night. At the banquet, trophies, plaques and scholarships are awarded to those achievers who qualify.

JA business centers are located at Eastridge High School, Schroeder High School in Webster, Churchville-Chili High School, Britton Road Junior High School, Pittsford Recreation Center, and the Main Center and offices located in the RIT Metro Center at 50 West Main St., Rochester.

Cards Add Soccer

Another significant date has been added to the Cardinal Mooney history records — Sept. 22 — first game played by the new team added to the girls sports program — varsity soccer.

Under coach Janelle May, the Cardinals started off on the right foot by blanking Jefferson, 3-0. Co-captain Mary Graham scored two goals and sophomore Annie Reed booted in one to lead Mooney to their first victory. Meanwhile, the girls' field hockey team is working on another successful year. They dropped their first game but bounced back to defeat East Rochester, 1-0. Senior co-captain Debbie Berl smacked in the winning goal with less than one minute remaining in the game.

The Cards upped their record to 2-1 on Sept. 23 with a victory over Eastridge, 2-1.
