

A Different time, a different life style . . . when birth and wealth determined one's place in society . . . when pride in workmanship added immeasurably to the quality of life. See a rare exhibition of fashions that embellished the lives of Rochesterians of the past . . . a collection assembled with the cooperation of the Rochester Museum and Science Center, now at Sibley's. Bridal gowns and garb for bridal paths . . . baby clothes and little black dresses through the years . . . Oriental Robes de chambre . . . exquisite accessories and lingerie. Ruffles, bustes, fans and bows. They're all part of Sibley's annual fall festival: QUEST to improve our quality of life. Sibley's Ward Gallery, Fifth Floor Downtown
