As the Bishop of Rochester, Bishop Joseph L. Hogan fulfilled many roles, in both the spiritual and civic realm. Clockwise from upper left, the bishop appeared with leaders in the missions field, greeted His Holiness Pope Paul VI, distributed Holy Communion with Msgr. Wilfred T. Craugh, concelebrated Mass with priests of the diocese and Bishops John McCafferty, James Kearney and Dennis Hickey, shook hands with Episcopal Bishop Robert Spears, appeared on stage with Bishop Kearney and Father Charles Lavery, spoke at civic functions, and was a guest on television shows with Eddie Meath.
