

There Was Time for Enjoyment

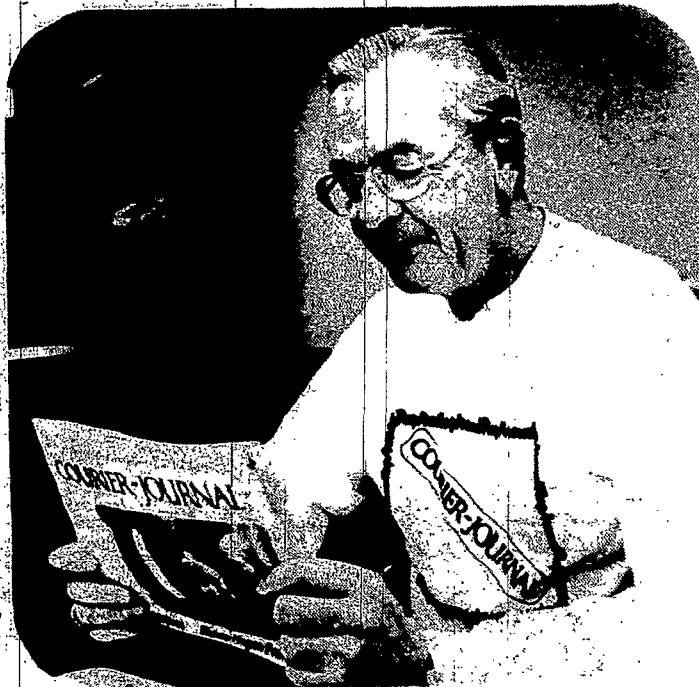

The bishop often entertained friends and associates at home and was not adverse to donning the role of "chef."

Father Joseph Trawinski keeps Bishop Hogan dry during the bishop's visit to St. Theresa's in Rochester.

The bishop managed a prize-winner during a fishing trip to St. Lawrence.

A promoter of his favorite diocesan newspaper.

Throwing out first ball at Courier-Journal night at Silver Stadium.

An avid baseball fan, Bishop Hogan does a radio stint with Red Wing announcer Pete Brown.

Practicing putting with senior citizens at St. Ann's Home.