

Boat People

Hungry Vietnamese children stare at visitors aboard the freighter Hai Hong off the coast of Malaysia on Nov. 20, as they wait with 2,500 other refugees for word of their fate. Meanwhile, the U.S. is reported to be seeking authority to accept 2,500 additional refugees from Malaysia and United Nations officials have been given permission to begin interviewing shipboard refugees for possible placement in other countries. Auburnian Honored

Msgr. Joseph A. O'Connor, a native of Auburn who was ordained in Trenton, N.J., in 1947, is named in an honors list from the Vatican published in a recent issue of The Monitor, newspaper of the Diocese of Trenton. He was one of four monsignors "promoted from Chaplains to His Holiness to Prelates of Honor" by "Pope John Paul I of happy memory," the story said.

In all, nine priests, four laymen and five women were honored at the behest of Bishop George W. Ahr, who made his ad limina visit in September. Msgr. O'Connor was Bishop Ahr's representative for Catholic hospitals of the diocese from 1960 until last October. He is pastor of St. Denis Church in Manasquan.

New Stamps To Commemorate Pope John Paul I

Vatican City (RNS) — The Vatican Post Office announced it would issue a series of stamps commemorating the 33-day reign of Pope John Paul I.

Cardinal Albino Luciani, Patriarch of Venice, who was elected Pope on the afternoon of Aug. 26, died of a heart attack on the night of Sept. 28. The stamps will show the late Pope sitting on the papal throne, smiling, and walking in the Vatican gardens. The four-series commemorative stamps will be put on sale Dec. 11.

Drivers Needed

The Christmas Bureau of Rochester needs drivers to help carry gifts to the elderly and infirm people on its list. More than 2,400 small packages and cheer baskets will be delivered in the area between 8 and 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 20. Volunteer drivers can sign up by calling 271-0860.
