

Aquinas Class of '29 Schedules First Reunion

The first graduating class of Aquinas Institute (Class of '29) will celebrate their 50th Anniversary with a reunion May 10, the first reunion they have ever had.

The event will take place at The Party House, 677 Beahan Rd., beginning with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. Bill Magin, a member of the reunion committee reports that 52 members, of the class have been or will be contacted soon but there are a few classmates that he can't find.

The missing graduates are Leonard E. Hahn, Theophilus "Tope" Maliborski, Harold J. Matheis, John M. Quigley and Henry T. Weber. Magin said that he'd like to hear from these gentlemen if possible. If they can't attend the reunion perhaps they could drop a few lines explaining what they've been up to for the past 50 years.

Father John Menner, CSB, school principal; and Father Thomas Miller, CSB, alumni coordinator, will be honored guests at the dinner.

Members of the Class of '29 are asked to contact Bill Magin, PO Box 82, Canandaigua, N.Y. 14424 (716)394-4600.

Deaths

Ambrose Resch, 87

Ambrose L. Resch, who worked on farms for 72 years, died Jan. 9, 1979, at the age of 87.

The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Jan. 13 at Mother of Sorrows, with burial in Holy Ghost Cemetery at Coldwater, where Mr. Resch was born.

"Ambrose was 11 years old and the oldest of seven children when his father was killed in a farm accident," his son, Joseph, reported. "He immediately went to work farming by the month, earning his room and board and turning over whatever money he earned to his mother..." Later, for many years, he was a tenant farmer, "and at age 83, he finally hung up his old straw hat." He lived in Island Cottage Road, Greece. His wife was the late Amelia Wegman.

Survivors include five sons and four daughters, Raymond, Edwin, Charles, Joseph and Eugene; Mrs. Richard (Agnes) Lochner, Mrs. Edwin (Mildred) Scorse, Mrs. Charles (Thelma) Neary and Mrs.

John (Gertrude) Lynch. There are 41 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and 25 nieces and nephews.

Also surviving are three brothers, Joseph, Fred and Frank Resch; two sisters, Mrs. Genevieve Statt and Mrs. Caroline McEvoy of Indiana and two aunts, Marie and Mary Wehner.

Father Eugene Weis and seven other priests celebrated the funeral Mass. The roles of lector, petitioner, altar boys, offerers of the gifts, and pall bearers were taken by members of the family.

Kuchen A la Dawson

Sometime between the time the zucchini columns ran and Christmas, a letter arrived from an Auburn reader asking if I happened to have any kuchen recipes floating around.

Sarah Child

I didn't so I filed the letter to answer at a later date. Then over the holidays Peggy and Jim Dawson arrived bearing what else but one of Peggy's special kuchens. Nostalgic in an old-fashioned, flowered china pie dish which had belonged to Jim's mother and topped with maraschino cherries and a glaze it was a sight to make a weak-willed woman forget her diet.

From a basic recipe, Peggy has added a number of special touches, including the design. This past Christmas she had nine to give away. She makes them early (she's super-efficient) and freezes them.

Though Christmas is 10 months away, Valentine's Day and Lincoln's birthday are right around the corner. And this looks like a natural.

PEGGY'S KUCHEN Basic Sweet Dough

2 pkg. active dry yeast; half cup warm water (110 degree F.); 4 cups regular all-purpose flour; half cup sugar; 1 tsp. salt; three-quarters cup butter or margarine; half cup milk, scalded and cooled; 2 eggs, slightly beaten; butter, melted.

Sprinkle yeast over water to dissolve. When completely dissolved, sprinkle a few granules of the sugar into the yeast mixture to start yeast action. (I think Red Star Yeast is the best, by the way).

(Use your imagination for filling. Peggy varies hers. But for this recipe will use cinnamon, golden seedless raisins, powdered sugar, maraschino cherries and a teaspoon of vanilla).

In large mixing bowl, combine flour, sugar and salt. On low speed of mixer cut butter into flour mixture until it resembles coarse meal. Combine milk, eggs and dissolved yeast. Add to dry ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Brush with melted butter, cover and chill overnight.

Divide dough into equal portions. Roll out each into a rectangle about a quarter-inch thick. Brush with melted butter; sprinkle with mixture of sugar and cinnamon; a layer of golden seedless raisins. Roll up like jelly roll from long side; tuck one end into the other, securely forming a ring. Place ring in a round pie or cake tin which has been very lightly greased. With a pastry cutter, cut half-inch slices around entire ring, being careful to only cut about three-quarters of the way into center of ring. Take one slice, twist and lay it on its side; next slice, twist, lay on its side, overlapping first slice, and so on around ring. Brush with melted butter. Let rise until doubled in warm place; about one to one and a half hours.

Bake at 350 for 30 to 35 min. until golden brown. Cool. Frost with thin layer of icing made from butter, 1 tsp. vanilla, powdered sugar and milk. Decorate with maraschino cherries.

This is best served warm. About 10 to 15 minutes in a 350 oven.

It can be frozen, wrapped in foil. Thaw at room temperature, then heat to serve.
