Charities Examines Service to Hispanics

By Michael Groden

Agency directors and Hispanic workers of Catholic Charities for the diocese met last week to discuss "problems, needs and issues confronting Hispanic individuals and families" which the organization might be able to deal with but is not currently.

The meeting centered on discussion of a report given in three parts by the Hispanic agenda planning committee. The committee had met several times prior to last week's meeting in order to decide which issues dealing with Hispanics were most critical and to offer suggestions on how Charities might deal with them. The committee consisted of Cristina Acosta, Charles Settlement; J. Roberto Burgos, CYO and Project PODER; Gertrude Pagan, Catholic Family Center (St. Michael's); Italo Rodriguez, Spanish Apostolate; Olga deSamper, Catholic Family Center; Maurice Tierney, Catholic Charities director; and Carol Young, Genesee Settlement.

Presentations were given on three major "sections": consciousness raising, coalition planning and alternatives and pilot projects.

Burgos, reporting on consciousness raising, suggested that efforts be made towards promoting affirmative action at board and staff level, conduct orientation meetings for Charities agencies in terms of Hispanic culture and lifestyles, and to bring together those Charities employees who work with

Hispanics in order to improve "visibility among American Hispanic communities."

Olga deSamper reported on the possibility of establishing a coalition to address the possibility of publishing an English-Spanish directory of Charities services, redeploy Hispanic employees to better serve the community and alert the Community Chest to the increasing need for funding of Hispanic programs.

Italo Rodriguez, reporting on the alternatives and pilot projects section said that some programs worth looking at should include the promoting of recruitment and hiring of Hispanics for Charities jobs, the improving of services to Hispanics by developing Hispanic personnel and the establishment of a service center where the Hispanic workers can share their talents and leadership with each other and the community.

In a question and answer period following the presentations most discussion centered on the establishment of the coalition. Several agency directors and diocesan director for Social Ministries, Father Charles Mulligan, wanted clarification on how the proposed group would be run.

They felt that the governing body of the coalition should be established first and then the problems could be

THE FAMILY CARE PROGRAM NEEDS FOSTER HOMES

If you are a warm, caring person, please read on. We need family care homes (foster homes) for mentally retarded children, teenagers and adults. We have seventy homes already and our goal is to keep increasing this number. This way many more mentally retarded individuals coming to Monroe County from institutions can enjoy the advantages of living as part of a family.

Our program, called FAMILY CARE, seeks to place children and adults with families who can provide them with the home atmosphere all of us need. Some people need a home for a short time (weekends and school vacations) while others need a home on a more permanent basis.

Give foster care a thought. Seventy families already have and are enjoying caring for their new family members. The board payment is $247.30 a month.

If you're interested in becoming a family care parent or want more information call or write to:
