Why do you enjoy acting?

CARDINAL MOONEY

STAN BALCERAK
Sophomore
football

"I've gained self-confidence and have learned a lot about acting and singing. Last year I tried out because a lot of my friends were doing it and I heard it was fun and wanted to give it a try. Opening night gives me the jitters. I'm not afraid to go out there but you just want to do your best. The other nights are easier."

LISA MANES
Junior

"It's good especially working with people and it's good training to work all the hours you have to — you have to give up a lot. It's difficult assuming a role — being someone you're not. Best part of acting is the audience response. If I could do any part I wanted, I'd like to be Scarlett O'Hara in Gone With the Wind. My first acting part was in the first grade as Gretel in Sound of Music."

BETH TIERNEY
Freshman
Captain, cross-country team

"I like to be with people and I like the applause and have my family and friends come see me. You feel satisfied when it's over with and feel that you did a good job. Auditions make me nervous and learning all the dances. I went to Brockport Middle School and was in their productions."

ANNA MARIA CARICCHIO
Senior
National Honor Society

"You can lose yourself when you get on stage. You can be another person perhaps be a person you'd like to be but haven't shown anyone else. You get into these characters and it's difficult to make yourself totally believe you are the character and make the audience believe you are that character."

ANDY WEATHER
Senior
AFPA

"Participating in plays you meet a whole new set of people — it's like a big happy family. I've gained the ability to go before an audience and either give a speech of my own or perform a part. In this particular play, The Unsinkable Molly Brown, I have to assume the role of a drunk who isn't drunk but just tipsy which is almost impossible."

DAVE GEORGER
football

"Working with other people which is a good experience. It helps you in whatever you do in or out of school. My sister and one of my friends were in a play so I decided to try. My first acting was in a few plays in grammar school. I don't have too much trouble getting into the character — it's the singing and getting it across to the audience. I've been advised to just concentrate, blank everything out and look over the heads of the people."

TOM CORBIT
hockey

"It makes you feel special. There's only 60 of us and we're putting on a show for everybody and all are working together and having a great time. Concentrating on a character and doing him time after time is difficult. Everyone told me how much fun it is and that it would be work but I'm really glad I did it and I think I'll be in other plays."

JEANINE PIANNACA
Junior

"I feel like it's an accomplishment. It's rewarding because I've gotten into something new. The time that goes into it is difficult and getting into a part that is so different from my own personality. In watching plays it was difficult for me just to sit and watch. I wanted to be up there and be in it."

Sports Who's Who

After losing all ten of their matches last year, the Aquinas Institute golf team opened their 1979 season by jumping back on the winning track. The Little Irish beat Honeoye Falls-Lima, 219-227, at Lima Country Club Juniors Kevin Mills and Joe Viscardi led Aquinas with 42s over the nine-hole layout.

McQuaid captured first place among a 13-school field in the Elmira Invitational track meet last week at Elmira Free Academy. Winners for the Knights were: Craig Rice in the 220-yard dash, Rich Price in the 44-yard dash, Peter Glavin in the 2-mile run, and Rice, Price, Jim Eckl and Vaun Crattet in the 880-yard relay.

Mark Henry pitched a one-hitter for Bishop Kearney which defeated Eastridge in a non-league game at Kearney, 3-0. Eddie Sands drove in the winning run with a single in the seventh inning.

Marshall High School's John Anderson and Mike LaMarca combined for a no-hitter but Aquinas pushed across two unearned runs to beat the Jurists, 2-0, with Mike Tedesco pitching the shoutout.

Mark Edelman and Mike Thomas combined for a one-hitter as McQuaid blanked Edison, 11-0, in a non-league game at McQuaid.

McQuaid's Phil Lanzatella pinned Leszek Pawlak in the 191-pound match in a freestyle wrestling exhibition last week between Monroe County all-stars and the Polish National Junior Team at East Rochester High School. Vince Baiamonte, also from McQuaid, lost a 10-7 decision to Wojciech Brzyrowicz in the 177-pound class. The meet ended in a 5-5 tie.

Debbie Berl pitched a one-hitter and Sandy Handley smashed two home runs and two doubles as Cardinal Mooney crushed Nazareth Academy, 25-1, in Private-Parochial Softball League play at Mooney.

GRAD-NOTES — Glenn Hagan (ex-Cardinal Mooney) averaged 21.5 points per game on 67 percent shooting from the field to lead the Rochester Zeniths to the Continental Basketball Association championship over the Anchorage Northern Knights, four games to none.

Dick Buerkle (ex-Aquinas), former world record holder in the indoor mile, won the men's Olympic development 5000 meters in 13:51.5 at the Penn Relays in Philadelphia.

Some coaches don't, but Bishop Kearney baseball coach Carmen Urzetta prefers to schedule all his team's non-league games at the start of the year instead of intermingling them with the Kings' City-Catholic League games.

"It gives me an idea of what I've got talent-wise and gives everybody a chance to play," said Urzetta. "So, once the league season starts, which is for all the marbles, I know what my personnel is like and can go with my best players in the league."

The Kings began their season nearly two weeks ago against town archrival Eastridge. The final score was 8-7, Eastridge winning, but hardly tells the story of the game. The Kings gave up only two hits but were crushed by 15 walks given up during the game. After that, they split a doubleheader against Pittsford Sutherland, losing the first game 4-3 in the last inning and winning the second game, 7-1. The very next day, the Kings lost another one-run game to Penfield, 4-3.

"I'm not trying to take anything away from the teams we lost to, but we could easily have been undefeated at that point," said Urzetta. "All those games were lost by one run, and all of those losses were caused by making one or two mistakes at the wrong time."

Since then, the Kings haven't lost. The turning point to their season so far happened in action against Fairport. The Red Raiders had jumped out to a 8-0 lead midway through the game. But Kearney kept chipping away at them and eventually pulled ahead and won in the eighth inning, 9-8.

"A lot of people might say that our winning was a fluke, but we came right back three days later and beat them 3-2 on their own field," said Urzetta.

In between, Urzetta got a well-pitched game against Eastridge, as Mark Henry, a junior, tossed a one-hitter to win, 3-0. Thus, Kearney's record stands at 4-3 with one more non-league game to play before starting their league season. Urzetta feels confident in his pitchers, and, although he still refrains from making public predictions, says his team will continue to be very competitive.

"I won't say we're going to be world-beaters and I won't say we're going to be door-mats. We'll be competitive," said Urzetta. "I'm not one to sing the praises of the kids until it's all over with."

"I do feel, however, that the kids should gain confidence from these non-league ballgames to give us a boost going into the league season."
