

The blessing from Bishop Clark.

The school had hoped to get Pope John Paul II to do the confirmations "but then the Holy Spirit interceded and made Matt a bishop and it couldn't have worked out more perfectly."

Rochester Priests Took Part

Father Hoctor tries out the crozier for size.

Msgr. William Murphy of Boston, co-chaplain at Marymount, had some touching words concerning the school's ties with the new bishop.

From left, Father Hoctor, Father William Flynn, Rochester chancellor, and Father Charles Latus, named secretary to Bishop Clark, took part in the Confirmation Mass.
