

Bishop Clark greets Carlotta McPherson outside St. Ann's. With her is Mrs. Harriet Dunn and looking on are Sister Marie Michelle, administrator, and William Ouweleen, assistant administrator.

Photos by Anthony J. Costello

St. Ann's Home

Just after presenting the apostolic mandate at the Cathedral Monday, Bishop Clark performed his first pastoral task in the diocese by visiting retired priests at St. Ann's Home. After introductions and a short prayer, the bishop and his priests had time for an informal meeting.

After the introductions and prayer, it was time to chat.

Chatting with Bishop Clark are, from left, Msgr. George J. Schmitt, Father Charles Reynolds and Father Michael Wurzer.

Father Charles Latus, right, introduces the bishop to, from left, Fathers Charles Reynolds, Michael Wurzer, Raymond Epping and John P. O'Beirne.

Msgr. John Ball shakes hands with the new bishop.

Bishop Clark and Father William Devereaux exchange greetings as Father Latus looks on.