grounds," he said, "we are willing to take risks."

And, he comment, "CHD is unique" in providing funds to groups which are unable to get funding from other sources.

He also noted the importance of the provision in the campaign for the involvement of the poor themselves. He pointed out that for too long, assumptions have been made about what the poor needed without consulting them.

He called for campaign workers to "persevere in their goals," commenting that they are "all part of a movement that moves at a different pace" from other funding programs.

A COURIER JOURNAL TOUR To POLAND and ITALY

With Fr. Chester Klocek, St. Leos, Hilton

September 7 to 22

Limited Space Available

Pope John Paul II and Father Chester Klocek of St. Leo's Church.

The Papacy of John Paul II is the exciting theme of this unique tour which is climaxed by an audience with the first Polish Pope... A tour that shows us much of the religious and historical greatness of Poland and Italy... We visit the Pope's birthplace and Krakow, see the old town in Warsaw, Chopin's birthplace, scenic Zakopane and more. Then to Italy where we'll visit Florence, Assisi, Pisa, Monte Cassino and of course Rome and the Vatican City.

Pope John Paul II said "Please come and see me in Rome... I would not be here if it were not for you... if it were not for your faith."

"Proszę mnie odwiedzić w Rzymie. Nie zapomnicie i nie zostawcie mnie tu samego"

Your Spiritual Director will be Reverend Chester Klocek, for several years pastor of St. Leo's Church in Hilton. Father Klocek is personally acquainted with his Holiness, John Paul II and with Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński, Archbishop of Gniezno and Warsaw. He hopes to renew his acquaintance with both during the tour. Father welcomes you to come with him — to enjoy the fellowship and the many spiritual benefits that come from such a journey.
