COURIER-JOURNAL

Wednesday August 15, 1979

Coming Alive

Photo by Terrance J. Brennan

10

With the opening of school just a matter of weeks away, Cardinal Mooney High School is beginning to buzz with activity. In upper left hand photo; John Grieb and Ed Sturn, both sophmores rearrange office files. Mary Anne Scott (soph) washes library windows while Chris Schmid (soph) arranges books. In the gym Coach Ed Nietopski's girls basketball camp was in full court - warming up their techniques for the coming season and he treated the game winners to ice cream. Robert Merrinan, an incoming freshman has plenty of time to meditate on the coming year while waxing classroom floor to a high polish. The school hires students for school maintenance and their work helps defray their tuition costs.

546-2440

Training Act.

Grant Winner Returns Home

Back from Germany Susan May, a member of St. John the Evangelist (Humboldt St.) parish and a junior at East High School. Her visit to Germany, which included a four hour sightseeing tour of East Berlin, was the result of a study grant she received from the American Association of Teachers of German (AAIG for excellence in the study of German. She was selected for the honor on the basis of high scores in the AATG's national testing program. While in Germay, she resided with a family in Nuremburg.

nd Rap Around Rap Around Rap Around

Regarding her tour of East Berlin Sue said, "We were only allowed off the bus twice; once to see a museum and the other to see a war monument." In comparing the two sectors, she noted that in the Russian occupied zone, buildings had not been restored as in West Berlin and that there were numerous

SUSAN MAY Russian war monuments. Besides knowing Gerian, Sue has had two years of Latin. She plays the plays enjoys tennis and is a men ber of the East High frisbee team

Students Win Awards

St. Agnes winners of the Ralph Bunche scholarships awarded Aug. 5 included: Cheryl Sanfilipo who will attend Canisius College; Margie Altemari, St. John Fisher; Annette Breedlove, Howard University; Sheila Cuby, Howard University; Kathleen Duggan, Deman College; Maria George, St. John Fisher, Marca Grattet, Arizona State University; Claudia Mejia, Montoe Community College; Maureen McGonigle, Motiree Community College, and Margaret Britt, Cornell University.

Speaker at the awards ceremony was Clayton Osborne, director of Regional Youth Services.

Homeowner, business owner, stay even with odd jobs now and all year long.

Rent-A-Kids tutor, type, can be a lifeguard, a desk clerk, shovel your snow, mow your lawn, serve your party, write invitations, iron, sew, babysit, clean, wash, sort, take inventory, box, stack, carry, weed, rake, trim, plant, lift, dig, polish, paint, seal, bag, tag, set up, take down, and you name it. If a Rent-A-Kid doesn't live near you, we pick up and deliver your Rent-A-Kid, no extra charge. Rent-A-Kids are 14-18 year old kids who are paid minimum wage.

Rent-A-Kid is a nonprofit community service corporation started by Central Trust Company with additional funding by the City of Rochester and the Comprehensive Employment

119 Main Street East Commerce Building, Room 307 Rochester, New York 14604