Byrne Book Collection to Be Dedicated

Dr. John W. Tebbel, historian, author and expert in the field of book publishing, will be the featured speaker at Nazareth College dedication ceremonies for the Byrne

Collection of rare books, featuring items published in Auburn in the 19th Century. The dedication will begin at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 16, in the Zornow Reading Room of the Wilmot Library. It is open to the public at no charge. Dr. Tebbel, professor of journalism at New York University, is known for his historical novels and studies of American journalism. His talk will focus on 19th Century publishers and publications. The Byrne Collection was part of the private library of the late Msgr. Edward J. Byrne, a biblical scholar and archaeologist who was professor of Sacred Scripture at St. Bernard's Seminary at the time of his death in 1952. The collection reflects his interest in his native town of Auburn and its little-known history of book publishing.
