

At Your Parish...

St. John's, Greece

St. John the Evangelist, Greece, has slated its annual parish picnic for Sunday, Sept. 16 after the 12 noon Mass at Seneca Park, Shelter number three. Parishioners are asked to bring their own lunch and a dessert to pass. For further information those interested in attending may contact Rose DiBella, 225-0328.

St. Joachim, Canisteo

A Fall Festival is being planned at St. Joachim's Parish in Canisteo. The event will take place at grounds adjacent to the parish center on Sept. 21 and 22. A parish spokesperson has promised "something for all ages," including food, rides and live entertainment.

This year's "core committee" is now finalizing plans for the festival. They are Tony Galeazzo, Marge Fordy, Carol Tingley, Peter Raneri, Sally Stucky, Nan Barnes, Tony Galeazzo and Stan and Barb Banko.

St. Andrew

The Rosary Society at St. Andrew's Parish on Portland Ave. will hold its first meeting of the season on Tuesday, Sept. 25 beginning at 8 p.m. One of the topics of discussion will be Community Involvement. On Friday, Oct. 5, the parish is also planning a card party in the school hall. All parishioners are invited to attend both events.

St. Columba, Caledonia

St. Columba's Parish in Caledonia will have an elaborate CCD program this school year under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Shaughnessy. The theme is "Family, You're the Ones." Each grade will prepare and perform a liturgy and there will be special festivities. Fourteen guest speakers have been invited.

The Celebrate Life Group from St. Mary Our Mother in Horseheads will spend the first weekend of Advent at the parish, providing music for two Masses, an entertainment for the entire community and an ecumenical Advent service.

St. Jude

St. Jude's Parish has scheduled its annual parish festival for Sept. 14-16. The festival begins at 5 p.m. on Friday. Each day will feature a different dinner menu.

The festival features food and drink, and special booths and rides for the children. On Sunday there will be an auction starting at 1 p.m. The festival will take place rain or shine "under the Big Top," according to a parish release.

Godspell

Holy Family Theatre performed Godspell twice at Monroe Developmental Center, entertaining more than 500 clients, staffers, families and friends. Here, Brian Doran takes the limelight, backed by other troupers, and Lillian Paskal freshens Fran Sanseri's makeup during intermission. The center's new Chaplaincy and Religious Services department sponsored the show, which the Rev. Bill Gaventa said was the biggest celebration ever staged at MDC.

St. Francis of Assisi Marks 50th Anniversary

St. Francis of Assisi Parish is 50 years old and its year long celebration will culminate on Sunday, October 7, 1979 with a concelebrated Mass of Thanksgiving at 5 p.m. at the church. This will be followed by a dinner dance at the Mapledale Party House, Maple St. beginning at 7 P.M. Tickets are $10 each and can be bought after all the Masses.

No tickets will be sold after September 23. Tickets 195 thru 250 will be voided because they are missing and assumed stolen. These tickets must be replaced before the dinner dance. Contact Father Dennis Shaw, 436-6693 for replacement.

Good Shepherd, Henrietta

The opening of a new school year at Good Shepherd, Henrietta, will be celebrated this Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16, with a family picnic on the school grounds. There will be clowns and balloon animals, and field games for both children and parents. Events begin at 2 p.m. Families will provide their own suppers, and each is asked to bring a dish to share with others.

The celebration is sponsored by the newly formed Home-School Association.

St. Thomas, Irondequoit

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Thomas the Apostle parish will induct new members Wednesday evening, Sept. 19, immediately after a special Mass at 5:30. The annual tureen dinner for newcomers will begin at 6:30.

Dinner reservations should be made by Sept. 16 with Mrs. Barbara Genier, 467-7470; Mrs. Sharon Scantlin, 266-6600, or Mrs. Barbara Knapp, 338-1924. Mrs. Knapp has charge of arrangements.
