Focus on Frosh

It was an exciting day over at Cardinal Mooney High School on Sept. 5, when 360 freshman made their debut. Everyone, administration, faculty and students, were kept on their toes, explaining directing . . . explaining, directing . . .

Photos by Terrance J. Brennan

. . . Like John Sullivan who was a bit weighted down.

. . . Like Chuck Hilbert, junior, helping his freshman brother, Jeff, decipher his schedule.

. . .Like Kathy Granby and her mother Mrs. Suzanne Granby and little brother, Al, who pursued the Mooney calender to see what activities were scheduled for the year.

. , .Like Sister Marlene McQueeny's cheerleading squad recruiting for their ranks. Interested possibilities were freshmen Joyce Daly (far left), and Valerie Chambers (far right), who discussed the program with seniors Laurie Yahn, varsity co-captain; Lisa Schmid, varsity captain; and Karen Salva who is captain of the junior varsity.

. . . Like Brother Alexander Stokes, passing out a sorts of printed goodies to the new students.

. . . Like Donna Colburn and Kathy Huether, who had an abundance of academic materials, and tried looking nonchalant about hunting for the right lockers.

In Search Of Actors

Thieves Carnival, a play by Jean Anouilh, will be presented on the St. Agnes stage in November. The play tells the story of three French jewel thieves who plan to beguile and rob three ladies during the French carnival season. Auditions for male actors for this play will be held in the school auditorium, Sept. 25-28, 3 p.m. For further information, contact Sister Ann Patrice, 424-1330
