Put Trust in God, Parish Council Told

The first duty of the parish council is to promote the holiness of the people of God, Brother Brian Walsh said last Sunday at installation ceremonies for Rochester's Immaculate Conception Parish Council.

The Christian Brother, who is serving his second term as president of the Diocesan Pastoral Council, assured the recently elected members of the Immaculate group that, although there are trials attendant on their duties,

"God will be with you. God will take care of you."

The installation rites were part of a Mass, replete with Gospel music and evangelical hortation from the pulpit. The parish has become known for its liturgies incorporating those elements.

The day was billed as Parish Council Sunday and included a social hour during which parishioners could offer their services on a number of council committees.

The council members are Betty Marian Anderson, Richard Bialczak, Seadah Cassim, Beverly Davis, John Livingston, Sebastian Pettix, Rose Stokes, Sister Frances Sweeney and Gaynelle Wethers.

LITTLE ENYONAM MISSION-GRAM

Help a Young Man become a Missionary

The World is our Parish

Her name means "Accept me as I am!"... And Little Enyonam, an armless 13-year-old girl at African Orthopedic Training Center run by Brother Tarcisius, is just one of many Mission children who urgently need medical help... Says Enyonam: "The gift of my own arms and hands gives me great joy!"

Your donation today can make a child's dream come true.

Every hour... Every day... The Divine Word is spread throughout the World... The World is our Parish... Help us today in this Christ-like work... Send your offering to help with a child's medicine... a village's relief from hunger... a Missionary's training... a chance to find God for those less fortunate than yourself!
