Pope's Gift

Among the gifts which were presented to Pope John Paul II on his visit to the United States was this decorated egg in which a wooden statuette of Kateri Tekakwitha is enshrined. The gift was created by Ron Guidone (above, left), a member of St. John the Evangelist Parish in Rochester. It is a double yolk goose egg painted with white pearl and covered in crystal rhinestones, gold braid and gold plated metal findings. The gift was presented by Mrs. Ann Scheuerman (above, right) of St. Louis Parish in Pittsford, on behalf of the Kateri Tekakwitha League, when the pontiff visited Des Moines.
