

Worldly Service

In one of many programs during Catholic Schools Week, the children at Our Mother of Sorrows in Greece took part in a prayer service in the church. The theme was the International Year of the Child, and the clothes worn by the student representatives had an international flavor. From left, Nida Lellis, third grade; Anthony Infantino, second grade; Paula Amico, fifth grade; Sue Agostinelli, seventh grade; Peter Magliocco, first grade; Phillip Gough, sixth grade; John Whitman, eighth grade; Kevin Melanson, fourth grade; Diane Huber, eighth grade.

Anointing Service Scheduled

An anointing Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's, Canandaigua this Sunday at 2 p.m. Concelebrants will be Msgr. William Roche, pastor at St. Mary's; and Fathers James Hewes, James Sauers and Gerald Kelley.

The service is open "to any sick person, including children who have a sufficient reason to be comforted by this sacrament," according to a parish release.

Transportation will be provided for anyone who may need it, including wheelchair patients. For information on the transportation those interested may contact Helen Doran, 716/394-6199 or Sister Marie Albert, 716/394-2473.

Knights Note Anniversary

The Rochester Regiment of the Knights of St. John will celebrate the 100th anniversary of its organization Sunday, Oct. 28.

The annual corporate Communion in the morning at Annunciation Church will start off the celebration. Bishop John E. McCafferty will be the guest speaker at a dinner at 5 p.m. at Arena's Party House. Father George S. Wood, chaplain, also will speak.

'Focus' to Visit Melkite Church
 Focus on the Eucharist is scheduled for Nov. 1, at 7:30 p.m., in St. Nicholas Church, 200 and Remington streets. Father Salem Faddoul, pastor, will celebrate Mass in the Melkite Rite. Although Nov. 1 is not All Saints Day in the Melkite calendar, the holy day obligation of Roman Catholics will be satisfied by this Mass. Evening prayer precedes the Mass and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament follows it.
