

Stewardship Drive

St. Vincent DePaul Parish, Corning, participated in the Stewardship program for the first time this year, and conducted the first parish census since 1973 at the same time. Above, Joseph Vincent (left) and his wife Donna Lou Vincent, section leaders, give last minute instructions to Mrs. Joseph Lando and Mary Kerwan before they began their calls.

Taking one last look at materials for the St. Anthony's, Elmira, Stewardship Drive are, from left, William Caroscio, Peggy Monitello and Michael Campanelli, who organized the drive. The campaign, Sunday, Oct. 14, was the first participation in the program for St. Anthony's.

African Priest Offers Insights Into the 'Dark Continent'

"Many American people I meet," says Father Duah-Agyeman of Ghana, "think of Africa and Africans in terms like savage, cannibalistic, primitive — jungle movies."

To "clarify people's perceptions," he offers a course called Ghana Workshop, under the aegis of the Catholic Youth Organization.

The African priest, here for graduate study, has been giving his workshop for the past four years for high school classes, youth groups and adult groups from churches and service organizations. The interested group selects the time and place. Father Duah may be reached through the CYO, 454-2030.
