

Seneca Falls Double Jubilee

St. Patrick's parish in Seneca Falls had a double reason for a special celebration last Sunday.

Parishioners noted the 100th anniversary of the parish school which was established in 1879 and the 50th anniversary of the church present church, erected in 1929.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark was principal celebrant at the jubilee Mass and delivered the homily.

Father Michael J. Conboy is the pastor.

ANDREW MELONI

The Outstanding Choice for SHERIFF

It's time to elect a Sheriff who will be respected, will provide needed leadership, will act before a crisis occurs, and will clear the air of scandals surrounding the Sheriff's Department.

Andrew P. Meloni says, "I'd like the opportunity to return the department I helped build, restore the confidence of the people in the Sheriff's Department, and revitalize staff moral and confidence."

Andrew P. Meloni has been endorsed for Sheriff by the Monroe County Sheriff's Deputies Union, the Federation of Law Enforcement Agencies, the Chamber of Commerce, and both Rochester daily newspapers, the Democrat and Chronicle and The Times Union.

"Andy Meloni's long background in law enforcement, serving both the public and private sectors in our community, makes him extremely well-qualified for the job of Sheriff."

—Father Charles Lavery, announcing Chamber of Commerce endorsement, Democrat and Chronicle, October 14

Andrew P. Meloni has over 20 years experience in law enforcement and public safety:

- Monroe County Sheriff's Department, 1955 to 1973.
- Monroe County Undersheriff, 1968 to 1973.
- Monroe County Public Safety Administration, 1974 to 1977.
- Director of Security, University of Rochester, 1977 to present.
