

Peter Lance To Speak on Boat People

Peter Lance, the award winning journalist who now is producer of 20/20 for ABC News, will show a film and speak on "The Boat People" at the NTID Theater of Rochester Institute of Technology, Friday, Nov. 2, at 4 and again at 8 p.m.

He will speak as an eyewitness to the refugee problems in Hong Kong, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore and Indonesia. Lance's presentation is being sponsored by RIT's Division of General Education. Among the agencies promoting the program is the diocesan Missions Office.

Book Sale Nov. 3

The Women's Center for Theological Education will sponsor a used book sale Saturday, Nov. 3 at the center, 70 Glasgow St. The proceeds from the sale will be used to finance expansion of the center's permanent book collection.

A variety of books will be available and include history, current events, children's books, fiction, religious texts, psychological work, literature and drama.

NFP Sessions Scheduled

Natural Family Planning information sessions have been scheduled at 7:30 p.m., the first Monday of each month at the Kearney Education Building at St. Mary's Hospital.

The sessions are open to the public at no charge.
