

K of C Schedules Busy Year

The East Rochester Knights of Columbus, St. John Fisher Council, has lined up a busy season.

Only last week it presented a television set to St. Jerome's school for educational programs. The presentation was made by John Carli, grand knight, and Cliff Joslin. Accepting were Father Anthony Calimeri and Sister Joseph Gilmory Russell. Also present were students Elena Poretta, Patrick Urzetta and Christina Poretta.

On the calendar, a diocesan-wide Free Throw Basketball contest will start at 9 a.m. on Nov. 10 at the East Rochester Middle School. Everyone from 11 to 14-years-old is invited to participate. William Tando, youth director is in charge.

That evening, a testimonial dinner in the church hall will honor Joseph Bullis, past grand knight, and Orrin Miner, financial secretary. A baked ham dinner will be served.

In addition, notice has been made that the Supreme Council will honor the family of Arthur-Brady for its activities in Church, community and council.

Sister Honored

Elmira — Sister Juliana O'Hara, SSJ, Chemung County Office for Aging director, recently was named Woman of the Year by the Elmira Business and Professional Women's Club.

Sister Juliana, founding director of the county agency, has played an important part in the development of a program on aging services at Elmira College. She also is currently serving as president of the state Association of Area Agencies for the Aging.

The "Woman of the Year" honor is awarded in recognition of service to the community.

Memorial Mass Scheduled

Elmira — There will be a Memorial Mass Wednesday, Nov. 14 in the Little Flower Chapel in the Dunn Memorial at 7 p.m. The Pastoral Care Department of St. Joseph's Hospital, sharing in the grieving of those who have experienced a death in the family, plans a memorial Mass every two months for all those who have died at St. Joseph's within that period. Families of the deceased are invited to this service and to a social gathering following the Mass.

Birthing Officers

Auburn — The local chapter of Birthright announced its new slate of officers recently. They are Suzanne Battaglia, co-director, Mary Chappell, secretary, and Carol Nolan, treasurer. Birthright provides services, counseling, free pregnancy testing shelter and more to expectant mothers.

Meeting Planned

Elmira — The ladies of St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society will conduct their monthly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 7. Members will meet in the church at 7:30 p.m. for rosary and benediction. A business meeting at 8 p.m. in the school will be followed by a "night of handicrafts."

NFP Class In Trumansburg

Trumansburg — There will be a Natural Family Planning class Nov. 13 at St. James Parish, given by Beryl and Nick Iven. A $30 fee includes three instruction sessions and materials. Pre-registration is required, and can be obtained by contacting the Ivens at 594-2380.
