WILL YOU SHARE A CATHOLIC EDUCATION WITH A WORTHY CHILD?

For over 80 years a strong Catholic school system served children in Rochester's central city neighborhoods.

But there aren't very many Catholic schools left in central Rochester these days.

Saint Monica's Catholic Elementary School, located on Rochester's southwest side, serves children living in neighborhoods ranging from the city's 19th and 3rd Ward all the way to downtown Rochester.

Many children are from genuinely poor families. Families which are plagued by sickness or suffer the death of a parent, for example.

These worthy children and their families find themselves in real poverty through no fault of their own.

These parents desperately want their children to be educated in a Catholic school; to be exposed to high academic standards, a healthy sense of discipline, the values of patriotism and good citizenship, and most of all to Christian teachings.

Saint Monica's has established a CATHOLIC EDUCATION FUND to help pay the costs of educating children who are needy and worthy. So many good people have helped bring Catholic education to Rochester's poor over the past few years.

Would you be willing to help?

Your contribution, large or small, will help make it possible for Saint Monica's to serve more deserving children next year. You can share a Catholic education with a worthy child.

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

EDWIN SULEWSKI
FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Grief has several stages. At first, there is often an attempt to deny the death — disbelief that it could have happened at all. Then there may come a period of anger and resentment — even feelings of desertion. Genuine grief usually follows these emotions — but during this time of strong and mixed emotions — it is important that the bereaved be spared the time-worn phrases that have little meaning for anyone.

Probably more than in any other situation, the less said to a grieving person, the better. You cannot explain death away — and the grief they feel must be worked through by each person, in their own time. Expressing your own feelings of love or respect for the deceased, listening when the bereaved want to talk — will encourage a release of the emotions and thoughts which is essential to will encourage a release of the emotions and thoughts which is essential to recovery from grief. Your presence, and your friendship, are the best help of all.

Many questions about handling grief can be answered personally by our staff — call any time.
