A CELEBRITY AMONG CELEBRITIES

With the then Gov. Rockefeller when he spoke to the joint session of the State Legislature on Jan. 8, 1968. Archbishop Sheen told the legislators, "I'm not going to pray for you. There are certain things a man must do for himself. He has to blow his own nose, make his own love and say his own prayers."

A visit to Sen. Ted Kennedy of Massachusetts.

With three successive popes, from top, Pius XII, John XXIII and Paul VI.

Bishop Sheen is shown on the set of his TV series, Life is Worth Living, with the madonna he conceived, Our Lady of Television. The madonna was executed by sculptor Louis Feron.
