

Map Around Map Around

Photo by Terrance J. Brennan

Nazareth Christmas

Elise Scullin, French horn; Chris Coogan, French flute; and Cindy Romano, vocalist, warmup for their Christmas entertainments that include: Choral Belles on the Eddie Meath Show, Dec. 19, and concert at Rochester Products, Dec. 20; the choir performs with the Rochester Philharmonic, Dec. 20-22; the academy Christmas concert is Dec. 17, 7 p.m.

Awards Cited

Recently, McQuaid held its Key Awards Program during which students who achieved top academic averages in the previous school year received silver keys for their efforts. Honored this year were: seniors, Chris Palermo, Gunther Peck and Bob Tripp; juniors, Dan Ritz, Steve Rudak; sophomores, Ron Brone and Mark Ouweleen.

Also announced by the school were students who received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholastic Corporation for their ratings on the 1978 PSAT tests. They are: Scott Bishoping, Jim Carney, John Eckl, Dan Gefell, Tom Gehan, Chris Palermo, Gunther Peck, Joe Reagan, Paul Swift, and Joe Szembrot.

Photo by Terrance J. Brennan

An Eye for Art

During his visit to Bishop Kearney, Bishop Matthew Clark stopped to study a new mural which decorates the school and found something that particularly captured his interest. Artists working on the masterpiece are seniors Geoff Christ, Todd Rohnke, Frank Sciarone; junior Donna Lewandowski and sophomore Lyndon Gross.

Equal Time

Do you think women, as world leaders, are capable of solving world problems.

AQUINAS

KEVIN O'SULLIVAN Junior
swimming

for that yet."

"I think so, if the people are willing to listen to them but I don't think they are ready to listen to them. I think they should though. How a woman solves world problems would depend on the woman. I don't think you'll see a woman president for awhile. I don't think the country is ready

PAUL LIOTTI Sophomore boxing same."

"They have the capability of handling problems, but the world isn't quite ready for women to take over power. The world is used to the male dominating force which is the main obstacle. Not all men would handle a problem the same — so neither would women. No two people's ideas are the

DAN MALO
Senior
ski club

in order to keep peace."

"Yes, they are; with proper education and with some experience, they could do as good a job, or a better one than some leaders today. They definitely would have a different approach to solving world problems. I think in this time of nuclear power they would be just as cautious as men

STEVE BORZILLERI
Freshman basketball

enough experience."

"Some women may be capable but in the traditional world they won't be able to get into the higher places. Not many countries take women leaders seriously. I don't think I'd like to see a woman president for awhile because they haven't had

JOHN WEBER
Senior
ski club government but it won't be for awhile. I'm sure they're capable of solving world crisis although they'll take different routes than men."

"I think they are capable but the world isn't ready to accept them in high positions. I feel they would accomplish things but people aren't ready to accept them as top leaders and I don't think they ever will. I think it's because the world is used to male leadership. I'm sure they'll assume high positions in

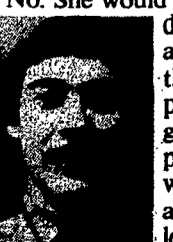

DAVID TERRY
Freshman
football

on the qualification of the person rather than on the basis of sex."

"Yes, but men have the experience. We'll be seeing more and more women leaders though, as they gain the experience. People aren't ready to accept women in top leadership positions — maybe in 10 years or so. I think there will be a time when we see a woman president, and I would vote

BOB MAGEE
Junior
football

and the coach special mention Rochester all-ey were Bob Driscoll, Bill Bob Bucklin. Furman who aints to the s C title was tion.

"No. She would approach problems from a different angle because they are different than men and they haven't had the experience. Possibly as they get more experience in politics you'll see more women leaders. The world as yet, doesn't take women leaders seriously."

MARK REN
Sophomore

"Yes, but I feel they don't have the experience in government. As they gain the experience they will gain leadership. They would handle world problems differently; like men would bring in military force to solve a problem — women would negotiate more."

Photo by Joan M. Smith

Joyful Voices

Under the direction of Sister Marion Dimino, Cardinal Mooney singers, (bottom left), Betsy Hart, Lori Prinzivalli, Mary Jane Brennan and Diana Georger; (second row), Bud Prevost, Katie Rombout; (top row), Stan Balcerak and Tom Eckert, prepare for their Christmas performances. The chorus will appear at the YWCA, Dec. 12, and at Midtown Mall, Dec. 16. They will also entertain along with the band, under the direction of Brother Edward Boyer, for visiting elementary grades, Dec. 17, 18 and 20. The school's Christmas Concert will be Dec. 20, 8 p.m.

Mrs. Riley is Feted

In honor of her many years at St. Agnes, Mrs. Riley has an orchid pinned on her by Sister Anne while students Eileen Naughton and Eileen Sullivan look on.