All God's Blessings

Christmas For All

By Celeste Schantz

Tip A Hat to all mankind to the dumb and the blind to the old and the sick

Raise a cheer for the young and meek for the strong and weak for the derelict

Sing a song to the optimist to the pessimist throughout the land

*With the precious gift of God's only son Know that Christmas is for everyone Not just one day to be relished in cheer,
But a way of life throughout the year.*

Before Before Was Known As Such

By Jim Felli

and after ever after,
A song was sung with silver tongues, and tuned to lyres of laughter.*

*Its words resounded through the night to touch the hearts of all,
From those who slept to those who wept with sorrows great and small*

And during days of war and siege and tranquil times of peace, Its prose remained with those it chose and any it could reach.

And not unlike the thoughts of those who preached in ages far ago, The song survived and lived to thrive as mortals toiled on.

*Yet no song may be sung for 'ere though it be true and just,
For time sits idle for no man and words soon turn to dust.*

And thus it was that Christ should come and sing the song anew And touch mens' souls and stay their woes as I shall do for you.
