

Christmas Crafts

Shoppers select from hundreds of hand-crafted items made by the residents of St. Ann's Home/The Heritage at a recent sale held in the Bishop Kearney Auditorium. The event was described by a spokesman as a "huge success."

Christmas Broadcast

The annual Christmas Presentation of the Sacred Heart Program, a radio broadcast heard across the diocese, will be aired on Sunday, Dec. 23.

Father James F. Dolan, SJ, will narrate "A Savior is Born," the story of the Holy Family of Nazareth. Music for the program will be "Now is Born the Divine Christ Child" and "Angels We Have Heard on High," sung by the St. Andrew's Senior Choir, and "Silent Night," by the Cal Stepan Chorale.

A Child's Christmas Reflections

A little boy wrote a little essay in which he said:
"My grandma asked me to write a paper about Christmas. I don't like to write about anything. I don't like school except recess and playing with other kids. I like Christmas because there isn't any school, and because me and my cousins and brothers and sisters go to grandma's. She has a big, big Christmas dinner and I get the leg and pumpkin pie and ice cream. Christmas is also Jesus' birthday. I like to go to church. Every year my father takes us kids to the stable in the church. We all kneel down and look at the Baby Jesus and Mary and Joseph and the lambs and shepherds and angels. I always say:
Happy birthday, Jesus. Thank you for coming to earth from heaven. Bless my grandma and grandpa and my mother and father and my uncle who died and our dog, Megin.

And dear Jesus,
Make me a good boy
so I will be a good man
like my father and grandpa.
Amen."
